

Ciprian Dumitru – Assistant Project Manager

Ciprian Dumitru, born in 1976, is a senior advisor with the General Secretariat of the Government, working on institutional and governmental communication issues within the Analyses and Strategy Center. A graduate in Political Sciences at the University “Dimitrie Cantemir”, he has received a master degree in legal psychology and social sciences from the University “Babeş-Bolyai” and the master degree in forensic sciences at the Police Academy “Alexandru Ioan Cuza”. Starting with 2001 begins its professional activity in General Secretariat of the Government has important working experience in institutional communication, he works as a communicator in many institutions of the central public administration from Romania, like Ministry of Tourism, Ministry of Regional Development, Ministry of the Environment, Ministry of Labor or The Prime Minister's office.