

Diana-Camelia Iancu – Public Policy Expert

Diana – Camelia Iancu is associate professor in SNSPA. She holds a PhD in Administrative Sciences from SNSPA, for a research on Europeanization of public administration in Romania (2008). She collaborated, among others, with The World Bank Group and OECD on projects targeting public administration reforms and policy-making in Romania and Eastern Europe. Between 2012 and 2016 she coordinated the course on “Good Governance” at Nijmegen School of Management (Radboud University, The Netherlands). She co-chairs the NISPAcee Permanent Working Group on PA Reform and is member of the Editorial Board of Public Administration Review. Since 2012 she has served as Dean of the Faculty of Public Administration.