

George Surugiu – Communication&PR Expert (Applicant)

George Surugiu, born in 1975, is a senior advisor with the General Secretariat of the Government, working on governmental communication issues within the Center for Analyses and Strategy. A graduate in Journalism and Communication Studies at the University of Bucharest, he has received a PhD degree in Political Sciences from The National University of Political Studies and Public Administration (SNSPA) of Bucharest. Surugiu has a significant working experience in private media, as foreign news writer for TV newscasts. Starting with mid-90s, he served for several years with the OSCE field missions in Balkans, as elections supervisor in Bosnia-Herzegovina, and as media officer/spokesperson in Kosovo