

Veronica Sorina Dumitrașcu – Modeling Expert

Veronica Dumitrascu is scientific researcher at the Institute of Sociology, Romanian Academy since 2016. She graduated Doctoral School at the Sociology and Social Assistance Faculty, University of Bucharest. Veronica published articles in reviews from Romanian Academy. She is author of a book, the coordinator of three volumes and co-author in four books. Veronica participated in conferences, trainings and workshops in the country and abroad. She also participated as expert in programs and projects concerning the development of rural communities (on socio-demographic component and on the evaluation of the disaster risks, community vulnerability dimension).